Reselling Tickets

Want to resell your tickets? Or buy second-hand tickets? Only do so via the official Resale platform! This is the safest way to sell your ticket and avoid disappointment due to illegal resales.

Step 1

Find the confirmation email of your tickets.

Important! Only the person who placed the order can make changes to it.

Step 2

At the bottom of your confirmation email, click on “manage order.” You’ll then be redirected to our site. There you’ll see an overview of your order.

Step 3

Click on “more actions” and select “resell.”

Step 4

A new page will open. There, select the ticket you wish to sell. After checking the box, you can specify the amount for which you want to sell the ticket. This price must be between 85% and 100% of your purchase price.

When setting the price, the system requires a number with two decimal places and a dot.
Example: want to sell a day ticket for 25 euros? Enter 25.00.

Once everything is confirmed, you'll return to the order overview page. You will now see under your ticket that it is listed for sale. You will receive two emails:

1. One confirming your ticket is for sale.

2. One confirming your Resale account.

Note: In your Resale account, you cannot make changes to your order or listed tickets. Changes can only be made via the link in the email. You'll receive a confirmation email once your ticket is sold and will receive your money a few working days later.
